

Crittenden Athletics Conduct Contract

For: Sporting conduct expectations for all persons participating in or attending athletic contests.

The following behaviors of spectators and players are unacceptable at all athletic competitions and events. Violators will be requested to leave the premises; repeated instances of unacceptable behavior will result in exclusion from all after school sporting events for the rest of the season:

1. No action by a coach, official, player, or spectator that downgrades, embarrasses or ridicules any other player, team, teammate, coach, official, or spectator will be tolerated or encouraged.
2. Verbally abusing opponents, teammates, coaches, officials, or other spectators.
3. Obscene language or gestures directed at opponents, teammates, coaches, officials, or spectators.
4. Physical violence or the threat of physical violence directed at opponents, teammates, coaches, officials, or spectators.

Parent/guardian and student signatures are required for participation in all after school sports programs at Crittenden Middle School.

Thank you for your compliance. GO PANTHERS!

Sincerely,

Marco Arcé
